Counselor Vacancy. Discussion commenced concerning the vacancy.

NEW BUSINESS

Points of discussion:

Options – ½ counselor position combined with ½ principal

½ counselor position combined with a curriculum specialist

½ counselor position combined with an academic coach

It was suggested that there would be the possibility of the person in this position taking some of the duties that Mr. Whealon is currently completing.

The counselor position requires a Master's degree.

The position should be advertised on the OPI website, area universities, and local publications. The ad should describe the character of the school and that of the successful applicant. Emphasis should be placed on the 4-day school week, progressiveness, ready for innovation, etc.

Ms. Lorenzen moved to begin the search for candidates for the position. Mr. Erickson seconded the motion which passed unanimously.

The board presented Mr. Whealon with a thank-you note for his great work this first year.
